N. Y. PRESS BOOSTING THE RACES.

The Herald, Telegraph, Sun, Tribune and Others Advertising Daytona Beach.

RACES ASSUMING ROSEATE TINT.

* * *

The New York Press is now assiduously advertising the automobile races, which are only two weeks off from tomorrow. The little hitch recently with the A. A. A., which developed a horizon full of ominous clouds was straightened out and the sky cleared and today everything is moving grandly in the direction of a racing event of the greatest magnitude and interest yet held on the Daytona Beach.

Four thousand five hundred dollars in cash for prizes has been deposited in the Merchants Bank, the necessary insurance was effected, all the requirements complied with and conditions met, and it only remains now to bring on the big speeding machines and turns them loose.

The New York Tribune says that sixteen automobiles have been entered or intimated for trials, and many more are supposed to sign for the event within a short time.

The New York Herald says: "Considerable enthusiasm is being shown by the motorcycle and bicycle interests. Oscar Indian, Curtis and F. N. entries were made yesterday to the motorcycle division. "Jack" Fogler has decided to try for a world's bicycle record paced by an automobile on the sand course."

In a long article under the head "Beach Auto Race Meet Assured," the New York Telegraph speaks enthusiastically of the coming meet. The Telegraph discusses the prospect of arousing sufficient interest in conjunction with the automobile and it looks good for some very fast time, not only favorable, but in the uppermost degree.

With the Churches.

The Right Rev. Wm. Crane Gray, Bishop of Florida, delivered a strong and pleasing discourse last night at St. Mary's Episcopal church and at the conclusion of the sermon confirmed a class of thirteen.

The sermon and services lasted a little more than an hour and a half and yet there was the closest attention and the greatest interest throughout. The confirmation service was very impressive and inspiring.

Bishop Gray spoke very encouragingly of the work throughout his diocese, touching in a pleasant and entertaining way upon his labors among the Seminoles and other peoples.

St. Mary's was taxed to its utmost to accommodate the hundreds who sought admission, many chairs being rolled into the aisles.

At the First Methodist church at the morning service the sacrament of baptism was administered to an infant and a class of several boys and girls were received into the church.

THROWN FROM HORSE; DEATH FOLLOWS

Mrs. Harriet C. Ford, Wife Of George C. Ford, Cleveland, Ohio.

WHILE RIDING NEAR ORMOND.

* * *

Mrs. Harriet C. Ford, wife of George C. Ford, of Cleveland, Ohio, died at Ormond Saturday night of abdominal hemorrhage, the result of a fall from a horse while out riding Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford have been sojourning at Ormond, and while out riding Saturday morning, it is said, Mrs. Ford released the reins for a moment and before she could recover them the horse, probably in play, began to jump and rear throwing Mrs. Ford to the ground, the fall causing the injuries which later resulted in her death. She was but 29 years of age.

The remains were shipped to the home of Mrs. Ford's parents at Newark, N. J., for interment, accompanied by Mr. Ford.

THEY WERE PLAYED OUT.

* * *

The Park Dramatic Company, which played under canvas here last week, folded their tent and drifted away to pastures new Saturday night after presenting to a dazzled audience that soul-stirring, hair-raising, elevating(?) drama, "Tracy, The Outlaw." The staging of the play was surperb,(?) the actors seemed to be out for a holiday and the whole performance was a dream—an, a nightmare—from beginning to end. The company has the reputation of giving some good plays and why they should skimp so much here—skimping work as was presented Saturday night is a puzzle. That unrehearsed but expressive slang phrase, "Rotten," most fittingly describes their performance of "Tracy, The Outlaw," a drama transferred into a touching farce. It was high time for the company to pull up their tent stakes and move on.

Floridians elsewhere would do well to cut out the last half of the week as the C. W. P. Co. put on everything they have worth seeing in the beginning and degenerate into the rankest sort of farce toward the last.

It is a two-day aggregation trying to make work stands.

"AT THE CRYSTAL."

* * *

Raleigh and Raleigh, the vaudeville team, will be new at Crystal Theatre tonight and all week. Tonight they will present "Kea's Debut," a comedy playlet, different from the usual sketch team; also sing their own original parodies on all the late popular songs of the day. These people must be seen to be appreciated.

HIGH SCHOOL, ELKS ARE IT.

The count of Saturday night in the Bush & Safford Piano Contest showed that the race from now on will be a rare old time. At the rate the Elks have been going since they entered the contest that Order will probably overtake the Daytona High School sooner or later. However, the contest has less than three weeks now to run, and the High School can likely keep up the pace that much longer. The last count gave the High School a vote of over 30,000 and the Elks a vote of over 27,000. The Halifax Rifles and Eastern Stars seem to be falling behind, but they too never can tell. The rest of the vote, both in and out of Daytona was light. There were no changes in the standing.

Cards at Mrs. Weeks.

Mrs. Jane Weeks entertained a party of ladies at cards, Friday afternoon, at her home on S. Ridgewood ave. The invitations were extended to the members of the old Whist Club and several ladies responded to form five tables of players. The ladies received as favors magnificent red-cheeked Sing oranges from the Mission grove.

HE NEEDS YOUR CO-OPERATION.

* * *

Hon. James E. Alexander, of DeLand, one of Volusia's members of the lower House of the Legislature, is publishing a notice in the DeLand News of his intention to introduce in the Legislature, which convenes next month, a bill for an appropriation to build a bridge over the Halifax river at or near Daytona.

"Jeems" has declared that he would rather give Daytona the sort of bridge she wants and needs and must have to achieve the greatest possible success than to be speaker of the Lower House!

It is in order now for Daytonians and citizens of the peninsula to keep in touch with Mr. Alexander and with other legislators you may have influence with and explain the situation and show your interest.

The interest of the masses in this case is diametrically opposed to the interests of the majority stock holders of the bridge who will see they did before in another legislature, be represented, and unless a strong presentation of the case is made Mr. Alexander's bill will go for naught.

It occurs to the Daily News that it would be in order to call a meeting of those interested in the bill Representative Alexander proposes, to confer with him and at the proper time go to Tallahassee and lend whatever aid seems necessary.

FANNIE WARD AND HER COLLECTION OF GEMS.

This picture shows Fannie Ward, the actress, wearing her remarkable collection of diamonds, rubies, pearls and emeralds, estimated to be worth half a million dollars. Miss Ward is now appearing in "The New Lady Bantock," which was written by Jerome K. Jerome and deals with various problems of high life in English society. While the play was not a distinct hit in New York, it furnishes Miss Ward with one of the best roles of her career, and she does some capital acting in the part.

Seabreeze News

SEABREEZE, March 8.—The Free Press learns, in departure of her overflow of goods at the near-by exhibits. A couple of prominent people from Providence are reported took rooms in Mrs. Burgman's handsome home. J. W. Rogers, B. H. Rogers and Miss F. Rogers, of Springfield, Mass., were among yesterday's arrivals.

Mr. Gardner Brown has received a message from his father-in-law, who is financially interested in some of our real estate, having many parcels, written with his daughters, still family, to come to Cave, Mich., and left in the afternoon train for that point. Mrs. Daniels is very uneasy about her father, although there was nothing in the telegram to indicate anything of a serious nature. However a few days ago she had a letter from the superintendent of one of the farms, written without knowledge of her father, saying he was very ill, and that he, the superintendent, had taken the responsibility of sending without consulting any one else. Mr. Brown is over 70 years old, but still leads an active business life. Mr. Gilmore will doubtless call the attention of bringing Mr. Brown home with him as soon as he could conveniently do so.

Todd Thayer arrived from Charleston, W. Va., Saturday, on a visit to his mother, and has rented her at The Mayfair.

Mrs. Hall, the mother of Mrs. Walthour, guest of The Mayfair, is visiting her daughter on Grandview avenue.

W. C. Cameron has an Italian-style arbor and drives at work on the large tract of ground, on Seabreeze Boulevard, bought recently by Mr. Cameron, J. C. Horn, the assessor, says it will take right more days to complete work on the large force. In answer to close cross-examination from the reporter, Mr. Todd said he knew nothing more than other folks. He thought the land belonged to Mr. Cameron and he had heard, as everybody else had, that a 250-room hotel would be put up. Evidently it is to be something desirable in the way of a building and money is not to be spared on the foundation work. This week a cement walk has been laid across the Grandview lengthwise.

Mr. F. E. Abel, of Cleveland, Ohio, stopped at The Glenwood on her way to Cuba. Mr. S. Bowen arrived from Cleveland, Ohio, and joined his wife at The Glenwood.

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, March 8.—The Board of Directors of the M. E. church met Saturday night, accepted the plans as submitted by Bartlett & Buckland and appointed Rev. Barge to solicit subscriptions, with power of appointing an assistant.

Mr. and Mrs. Lapp, of the House of Refuge, brought a boat load of fruit from their fruit farm Saturday and were calling on friends in Daytona Beach.

Mrs. E. A. Freeman planted 27 bloomers from her rose garden in three days last week. They were contributed to the Seabreeze fair and hospital.

Mrs. Chamberlain, wife and child, of Harrisburg, N. C., are visiting at the home of Colonel Cooper, on Peninsula drive. Mr. Chamberlain is Mrs. Cooper's brother. He spent only a few days but left the child, expecting to return for them later.

Mr. and Mrs. Beaty and Divine, who have spent most of the winter here, have moved into Comfort Lodge on Ocean avenue for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Lapp, of Pennsylvania who has been absent at the Pinehurst for the past week, left for his home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ward, son and daughter of Railway, N. J., guests at Comfort Lodge, spent Sunday in Daytona, stopped a short time with Mrs. E. A. Freeman before leaving for the North. They are friends and neighbors of Mrs. Freeman's home town.

H. D. Dow and wife, of Middlebury, Vt., and Mrs. W. N. Foster, who have wintered at Miami, arrived Saturday and have taken Dr. Olsen's cottage on Peninsula drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, of Binghampton, N. Y., arrived Saturday and have taken a suit of rooms at the Bahon House.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Cleary, of Indiana, came up from St. Petersburg Saturday and have taken rooms at the Bahon House.

The following arrivals were noted at the White House yesterday: Mrs. Malcolm Smith, Chicago; Mrs. Chas. J. Durant, Mrs. Wm. Kissel, Milwaukee, Wis.

It Did Not Work.

Mr. Rockefeller and his wife were on their way to church one Sunday morning, and Mrs. Rockefeller was anxious that the proper amount be made at the least possible expense, and was worrying as the new dome promised materially to increase the size.

"I can carry loads of little things over to the Lord's Day Alliance," Mrs. Rockefeller said, "and you can take books and so on to your big satchel."

In the evening further the matter of Philanthropist Mr. Rockefeller remarked that, notwithstanding the best she could wear her winter coat over, leave it and return for her spring coat. The idea charmed her impractical husband.

"Why, I can do the same thing!" he said. "I'll wear over one suit and then come back for another!"—Youth's Companion.

SEABREEZE, March 8.—The Princess Issena is disposing of her overflow of guests at the near-by cottages. A couple of prominent people from Pennsylvania yesterday took rooms in Mrs. Burgman's handsome home. J. W. Rogers R. H. Rogers and Miss F. Rogers, of Springfield, Mass., were among yesterday's arrivals.

Mr. Gamble yesterday received a summons from his father-in-law, who is pleasantly known of some of our citizens, having spent several winters with his daughters and family, to come to Caro, Mich., and left in the afternoon train for that point. Mrs. Gamble is very uneasy about her father although there was nothing in the telegram to indicate anything of a serious nature. However a few days ago she had a letter from the superintendent on one of the farms, written without knowledge of her father, saying he was very ill, and that he, the superintendent, had taken the responsibility of writing without consulting any one. Mr. Heartt is 80 years old, but still leads an active business life. Mr. Gamble left home with the intention of bringing Mr. Heartt home with him as soon as he could stand the trip.

Todd Thayer arrived from Charleston, W. Va., Saturday, on a visit to his mother, and has joined her at The Mayfield.

Mrs. Hall, the mother of Mrs. Walthour, guest of The Mayfield, is visiting her daughter, on Grandview avenue.

W. C. Cannons has six double-mule scrapers and drivers at work on the large tract of ground, on Oakridge boulevard and Grandview avenue, which J. C. Boon, the overseer, says it will take eight more days to complete with even this large force. In answer to close cross-examination from the reporter Mr. Todd said he knew nothing more than other folks. He thought the land belonged to Mr. Cannons, and he had heard, as everybody else had, that a 250-room hotel would be put up. Evidently, it is to be something desirable in the way of a building, and money is not to be spared on the foundation work. This week a cement walk has been laid across the Grandview length.

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, March 8.—The Board of Directors of the M. E. church met Saturday night, accepted the plans as submitted by Burdick & Buckland and appointed Rev. Barge to solicit subscriptions, with power of appointing his assistants.

Mr. and Mrs. Lapp, of the House of Refuge, brought a boat load of fruit down from their fruit farm Saturday and were calling on friends in Daytona Beach.

Mrs. E. A. Freeman plucked 95 blossoms from her rose garden in three days last week. They were contributed to the Seabreeze fair and hospital.

Allen Chamberlain, wife and child, of Rahway, N. J., are visiting at the home of Elmer Oliver, on Peninsula drive. Mr. Chamberlain is Mrs. Oliver's brother. He spent only a few days but left his family, expecting to return for them later on.

Mr and Mrs. Seeley and brother, who have spent most of the winter here, have moved into Comfort Lodge, on Ocean avenue, for the month.

Mr. F. W. Keen, of Pennsylvania who has been a guest at the Pinehurst for the past week, left for his home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ward, son and daughter, of Rahway, N. J., guests at The Ridgewood, Daytona, enjoyed a short visit with Mrs. E. A. Freeman before leaving for the North. They are friends and residents of Mrs Freeman's home town.

W. H. Dow and wife, of Middlebury, Vt., and Mrs. W. K. Foster who have wintered at Miami, arrived Saturday and have taken Dr. Owen's cottage on Peninsula drive.

Mr and Mrs. Lewis, of Binghampton, N. Y., arrived Saturday and have taken a suit of rooms at the Bishop House.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Chasey, of Indiana, came up from St. Petersburg Saturday and have taken Mrs. C. Bunch's Bath street home.

The following arrivals were noted at The White House yesterday: Mrs. Malcolm J. Smith, Chicago; Mrs. Chas J. Haussen, Mrs. Wm. Hessel, Milwaukee, Wis.

It Did Not Work.

Mr. Seabury and his wife were on the point of moving to another flat. Both of them were anxious that the transfer should be made at the least possible expense, and the nearness of the new home promised materially to further this aim.

"I can carry loads of little things over in my brown bag," announced Mrs. Seabury, "and you can take books and so on in your big satchel."

In discussing further the matter of transportation Mrs. Seabury remarked that notwithstanding the heat she could wear her winter coat over, leave it and return for her spring coat. The idea charmed her impractical husband.

"Why, I can do the same thing!" he said. "I'll wear over one suit and then come back for another!"—Youth's Companion.

The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphalt-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed but will proclaim that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls that by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gainey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and boat and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican perch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk zig-zagging upward with his floundering loot he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid an i liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with silken draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty at Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon demand as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of sticklegity barrack buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park.

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some awkward-of-place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or over callous one may be to many things, the merry motions or "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "picayune" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the nut, casting you it between his spotted hoofs.

Flowers! Usually trash and blooming the year 'round. In one yard rows of variegated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall canes.

The birds fit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly changing scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for cola for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

An Anecdote of Dupont and the Emperor Napoleon.

Napoleon, in a word, was fond of music. It is admitted that the musical tastes of "the Corsican ogre" were not elevated. But for all that he loved singing so much that many a time after a conquest he ordered the vocalists to come to the palace and sing before him and the Empress Josephine.

A curious anecdote is told of Mr. Dupont's manner of dealing with artists. One night at a concert at the Tuileries, while Dupont, the famous violinist, was performing a solo the emperor suddenly entered. His majesty nodded his head approvingly and when the piece was finished went to Dupont.

"How the deuce do you manage to keep that instrument in such order? And, taking up the cello, he tried to put it between his spotted knees.

Poor Dupont nearly fainted when he saw his treasure treated like a wood horse. For several minutes he stood on, trembling from head to foot. At last, however, he thrust forward and called out "Stop!" in such pathetic tones that the emperor handed back the instrument.

Dupont thereupon showed how the instrument was held, but every time his imperial master extended his hand to attempt to do it himself Dupont threw himself back in alarm till finally Josephine whispered something to her husband, who burst out laughing and put an end to the cello lesson.

The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard roses of variagated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

An Anecdote of Duport and the Emperor Napoleon.

Napoleon, in a way, was fond of music. It is admitted that the musical tastes of "the Corsican ogre" were not elevated. But for all that he loved singing so much that many a time after a concert he ordered the vocalists to come to the palace and sing before him and the Empress Josephine.

A curious anecdote is told of his brusque manner of dealing with artists. One night at a concert at the Tulleries, while Duport, the famous violoncellist, was performing a solo, the emperor suddenly entered. His majesty nodded his head approvingly and when the piece was finished said to Duport:

"How the deuce do you manage to keep that instrument so motionless?" And, taking up the cello, he tried to jam it between his spurred boots.

Poor Duport nearly fainted when he saw his treasure treated like a war horse. For several minutes he looked on, trembling from head to foot. At last, however, he darted forward and called out "Sire!" in such pathetic tones that the emperor handed him back the instrument.

Duport thereupon showed how the instrument was held, but every time his imperial master extended his hand to attempt to do it himself Duport threw himself back in alarm till finally Josephine whispered something to her husband, who burst out laughing and put an end to the cello lesson.—

McPHERSON FOR THE RAILROADS.

* * *

(By United Press.)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 7.—Judge McPherson, of the United States District Court, today handed down a decision favoring railroads in the two-cent fare and maximum rate cases. Eighteen roads participated in the suit.

Goes to St. Petersburg.

The Rev. J. E. Gates, who for several years past has been pastor of the First Baptist church at Leland, has severed his connection with that congregation and has accepted a call to the church at St. Petersburg, Fla., preaching his first sermons there yesterday morning and evening.

The Rev. Mr. Gates will leave for his new charge in about two weeks.

Rev. J. E. Gates is a father of Attorney E. F. Gates, of the law firm of Fairchild & Gates, this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perry and party, of New York City, who are at the Huntington, are in the city in their houseboat, towed by the "Lillian," a 50 foot motorboat. With the houseboat, the "Grace," in tow, the "Lillian" can make 8 miles an hour. The party came from the Number Yacht Club, of New York. The trip from Huntington began Friday morning, and ended here at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, Saturday being spent at hunting and fishing. The return trip will begin Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Ann M. Briggs, of Rahway, N. J., is dead at the ripe old age of 81 years and 5 months. Mr. and Mrs. Briggs came to Daytona years ago and built a handsome home on Ridgewood, near Volusia, and the Briggs family have many acquaintances and friends in this city.

He Was Very Charitable.

Among the features of a charity bazaar held in London was a refreshment stall, to which charitable donors contributed supplies, from washing up the tablings to represent their profits. The lady in charge requested a gift for this purpose from a well known and wealthy gentleman in the city, and sent her finance for "parting." To her surprise she received next day a note to the effect that he was sending her a sirloin of beef and "two on toupees."

The same morning the lady happened to go to her butcher (who was also the banker of Mr. X.), and, after giving him a large order for meat, just asked him if he would like himself to give anything.

"I should very much indeed," replied the worthy tradesman. "For I posted my gave to Mr. X. at his request for this purpose, a sirloin of beef and three ox tongues."

Not quite to Mr. X.'s. One or brains and a cheap reputation for charity!—London Standard.

He Was Very Charitable.

Among the features of a charity bazaar held in London was a refreshment stall, to which charitable donors contributed supplies, thus enabling all the takings to represent clear profits. The lady in charge requested a gift for this purpose from a well known and wealthy gentleman in the city, but one not famous for "parting." To her surprise she received next day a note to the effect that he was sending her a sirloin of beef and two ox tongues.

The same morning the lady happened to go to her butcher (who was also the butcher of Mr. X.), and, after giving him a large order for her stall, asked him if he would like himself to give anything.

"I should very much, ma'am," replied the worthy tradesman, "but I yesterday gave to Mr. X., at his request for this purpose, a sirloin of beef and three ox tongues."

Net gain to Mr. X.: One ox tongue and a cheap reputation for charity!—London Standard.
